Give your child the opportunity to develop character, learn valuable life skills, make new friends, and discover new interests...

Once on board, campers step back in time for an authentic living history experience! The A.J. MEERWALD is on the State and National Register of Historic Places. She is an authentically restored 1928 Delaware Bay Oyster Schooner - manila lines, canvas sails and all! Campers become part of the crew, gain knowledge of local folklore, learn traditional sailing skills as well as present local maritime skills, culture and traditions and sail a tall ship!

It's an exciting adventure they will always remember!

Teamwork

Raising the 3,500 square feet of canvas sail.

Sail on a tall ship!
Discover the secrets of the sea!

Campers will ...

- Raise and set sails
- Learn sail theory
- Study mechanical advantage
- Take the helm
- Navigate the ship
- Practice knot work
- Use a sextant
- Keep a journal
- Stand watch with the crew
- See, touch, and learn about local marine life
- Discover their watershed and ways to protect it
- Assess the health of the water
- Trawl for plankton and analyze the catch under a microscope
- Haul in the trawl line
- Dissect an oyster
- Swab the deck
- Sing a sea chantey
- Make new friends!
- Experience life at sea!

Sail programs may be tailored to meet your groups needs.

Knot work

An essential skill on board a tall ship!

Anchoring Out

At least one night is spent anchoring out under the stars to experience the fullness of life on the water.

Weeklong Camp

Maritime Camp is a weeklong experience for children ages 13 to 17. Organized groups may be age 13 and older. Campers will live on board the schooner and become a part of the crew. While on board they will also explore the ecology and culture of the New Jersey coast, visit ports along the sail route, and engage in shore activities.

A deposit of $150 will hold a reservation and full payment is required 2 weeks prior to camp departure.
