care of the
environment,
the history
and the culture of
New Jersey's
Bayshore
region through
education,
preservation
and example.*

The 19th Annual Delaware Bay Day folklife festival will take place on Saturday June 11th, 2011. Delaware Bay Day celebrates the unique maritime heritage and outstanding natural resources of the Delaware Bayshore region of New Jersey. Events are held along the 'Wild and Scenic' Maurice River in Bivalve, NJ, with shuttle service from parking areas in Port Norris. The day features street parades, environmental/educational activities for children and adults, regional foods, NJ wine tasting, music, contests, games, and river cruises aboard the historic schooner A.J. Meerwald. Festival favorites include blue crab races, an oyster shucking contest, traditional crafts and local seafood specialties. Attendance averages 5000 - 8000 people.

The Bay Day Festival strives to provide a positive and enjoyable experience for area residents, visitors and local businesses. Vendor space is coordinated in order to offer an intriguing variety to the consumer with limited competition for each vendor. We reserve the right to refuse applicants on the basis of duplication of offerings.

Festival hours: Saturday June 11th 11am - 6pm

All vendor spaces are outdoors - vendors wishing to have cover must bring their own canopy or tent. Electricity and tables are available for an additional fee.

Artisan/Crafter Application

Bayshore Discovery Project is seeking artists and crafters representing a diversity of traditional and modern crafts. There is a $30 fee to participate, plus rental fees if you require tables or electricity. Vendors may only sell their own products at the festival – no resale of commercial merchandise will be allowed.

New applicants are required to submit 3 photographs of their work and if possible a photograph of their display with this application. (Fax, email or web page links are acceptable.) Applicants will be evaluated based on submitted photos. To ensure a diverse selection of crafts, the number of vendors accepted will be limited by category.

An acceptance notice with map, set-up time and other pertinent information will be emailed to approved applicants on or before June 4th. Fees will be returned to any non-accepted applicants.

Please read carefully and complete the entire application.

ALL APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED NO LATER THAN MAY 31, 2011.
